Quality Payments to Practices

Your hard work is paying off with value-based payments starting to come in from the insurers! Be on the lookout as your PACN Funds Flow Committee directs their distribution shortly. Congratulations for this well-deserved recognition of the excellent care that you provide your patients every day.

Practice Pages on Website

The PACN website now provides quality information specific to your practice for your review. By logging in to your new member dashboard, you will see only your practice's information, including your ranking within the network as it relates to value-based contract performance, care gap data, STAR scoring (if applicable) and other actionable information. If you have haven't already done so, be sure to register for the website to access your practice's data. If you need help registering, contact Keith Taylor at ktaylor@paclinicalnetwork.com or 814-360-6622.

Mark Your Calendar: PACN Annual Meeting

The 2022 PACN Annual Meeting will be held on Tuesday September 20th at 6:00 PM. Join us virtually as we celebrate the successes of the past year and look to the future. Registration details and the agenda will be shared soon.

Podcast

Dr. Pagan leads our all-new PACN Podcast featuring special guests which previously included PACN members Dr. Phuong Wirths and Dr. Russel Gombosi. This month's guest is PACN Quality Team Leader, Wendy York. Click here to be taken to the PACN website to view all previous and current podcasts.

New Partnerships

We have been working diligently to bring you valuable discounted services to help your practice better serve patients and drive revenue. Recently, the PACN has partnered with Mindoula (behavioral health), BrilliantCare (RPM), LabCorp, Quidel (antigen screening), Abbott (molecular screening), and Henry Schein (GPO). Please contact Keith Taylor at ktaylor@paclinicalnetwork.com or 814-360-6622 to take advantage of these great opportunities.

Telehealth Tip Sheet
